CRITERIA

Scholarship Amount: $500 to $1,000

1. GPA requirement of 2.5 minimum – Proof of GPA does not have to be an official transcript.
2. Student must provide a list of extracurricular activities, including such things as jobs outside of school, school clubs, community service and sports, he/she has been involved in during high school. Dates must be included.
3. Student must intend to pursue journalism or media-related studies in college and must provide proof.
4. At least two letters of recommendation. One must be from a current or former mass communication or journalism professor at your university. The second letter can come from the following, but is not limited to: an athletic coach, an employer, scout leader, pastor, etc.
5. Resume
6. Examples of written work or production reel. (Not required but highly recommended)
7. Student must write an essay between 500 to 1,000 words detailing why he/she is interested in pursuing journalism or a media-related career and what he/she hopes to achieve in journalism or in a media-related career. Students may include a current, former or historical journalist or media-related professional who inspired them to pursue this career field. (Not required but highly recommended)
8. Student must write a second essay between 500 to 1,200 words on one of the three topics:
   I. Over the summer, iconic rapper Jay-Z and his Roc Nation entertainment agency announced a long-term partnership with the NFL. The decision was praised by some and angered others, including Rihanna and Colin Kaepernick. What's your thought about it.
   II. There's been so much talk about the legalization of marijuana across the country. Some states have already legalized it. What do you think? What are the pros and cons if it was legalized.
   III. The presidential election is a little more than a year away. What do you think are the main issues. Also, which Democrat do you think will win and what are their chances of winning next November?
9. Student may produce a video on one of the above topics instead of second essay. Please attach as an MP4 file or YouTube link. (Be creative)
